Do you know...

  a. how long it takes for COM students to graduate (to obtain a degree or certificate)?
  b. how long it takes for COM students to start their math or English courses (after entering the College)?

Answers:

  a. For spring 2012 graduates, the average time to graduate was 6.4 years.
  b. For spring 2012 graduates, the average time between their entry into the College and their start of math or English courses was two (2) years.

For more information on this topic, see College of Marin Student Achievement Report 2013.
(April 2013 Data Nugget)

These informative data nuggets are brought to you by the Office of Planning, Research and Institutional Effectiveness (PRIE).