WASC Reaffirms College of Marin’s Accreditation
In a letter received last week from Dr. Barbara Beno, President of the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges, Western Association of Schools and Colleges (ACCJC/WASC), College of Marin received official notice that its accreditation had been reaffirmed. The Commission met last month and made its recommendation after reviewing College of Marin’s Institutional Self Study Report (2010) and the report submitted by the evaluation team following their visit on Oct. 25 through 28, 2010.

The reaffirmation is a victory for college faculty, staff, students, administration and members of the Board of Trustees who made compliance with accreditation standards a top priority. This, of course, is tremendous news and a positive reflection of the hard work and dedication of the College of Marin community in working toward meeting and/or exceeding the standards set forth by WASC.

The college will have to fully address the Commission’s recommendations by Oct. 11, 2011. Although we have work ahead of us, we clearly have much to celebrate.

The commendations and recommendations as written in the report are as follows:

Commendation #1
The team commends the college for the breadth, thoroughness, comprehensiveness and use of the mission statement in its guiding documents related to governance and integrated planning. (I.A.4.) (IV.A.2.)

Commendation #2
The team commends the college for its excellent online enrollment management tool, which facilitates the development of “blueprints” for all courses, disciplines and programs. This in turn supports the college wide master scheduling process. (II.A.2.e)

Commendation #3
The team commends the college academic senate for their effective student learning outcomes wiki (online collaborative site), which serves as a central repository for all SLOs and their assessments. This facilitates the development and implementation of learning outcomes. (II.A.2.f)

Commendation #4
The team commends the college for their support of the recently implemented student athlete support program. (II.B.3.c)

Commendation #5
The team commends the college for its foresight in providing mental health and family counseling services to its students. (II.B.3.c)

Commendation #6
The team commends the college for its commitment to a sustainable environment by designing and using geothermal energy for institution’s heating and cooling in the new Measure C capital projects. (III.B.1.a)

Commendation #7
The team commends the college and the governing board for its commitment to revising board policies and administrative regulations and making them publicly available through the college website. (IV.B.1.e)

Recommendation #1
In order to meet standards, the team recommends that the college regularly update all institutional plans and systematically evaluate the effectiveness of all planning and resource allocation processes. The college should communicate to all college stakeholders the results of these assessment activities, and implement identified improvements on a continuous basis to support and improve student learning. Additionally, the team recommends that the college ensure that planning is linked to budgeting for the effective use of its resources. (LB; LB.6; LB.7; II.L.D.1.a; m.D.3)

Recommendation #2
In order to meet the Commission's fall 2012 deadline, the team recommends that the college accelerate its efforts to identify and assess measurable student learning outcomes for every instructional, library and student support program. The team further recommends that the college incorporate student learning outcome assessment results into program planning and resource allocation for the improvement of student learning. (ILA.1.a; ILA.1.c; ILA.2.f; ILA.3.a,b; ILB.4; ILC.2)

Recommendation #3
In order to meet standards, the team recommends that the college allocate resources to create a sustainable infrastructure to support a distance education program that can deliver high quality curricula and support student access and success. (ILA.1.b; ILA.2.d; ILB.3.a; IILC.1)

Recommendation #4
In order to meet standards, the team recommends that the college strengthen the role of research through a broad institutional dialogue and critical analysis of research data, especially in light of the changing student demographics. Institutional efforts should focus on providing information based on statistical data and communicating it widely to all appropriate constituencies in order to improve institutional effectiveness. (LA.1.; LB.3)

Recommendation #5
In order to meet standards, the team recommends that the college remedy the lack of library services, learning resources and student support services for evening, Indian Valley Campus, and online students. (ILB.3.a; II.C.1.c, ER 14, ER 16)

Recommendation #7
In order to meet standard, the team recommends that the college develop a facilities master plan to ensure the effective utilization and quality of physical resources which are necessary to support its programs and services. (IIIB.2.b)

Recommendation #8
In order to meet standards, the team recommends that the college establish and communicate a sustainable technology plan for the acquisition, maintenance and replacement of its infrastructure, equipment, support and training to meet institutional needs. The team further recommends regular evaluation of this plan for its effectiveness in prioritizing and funding current and projected long term technology needs. (III.C.1.a; mC.I.b; III.C.1.c; III.C.1.d)

Recommendation #9
In order to meet standards, the team recommends that the board focus on developing policies that support the quality, integrity and effectiveness of student learning programs and services. The board should deliberate with due diligence and make timely decisions that are in the best interests of the institution. The board should act as a whole and adhere to board policy once a decision has been made, and support the superintendent/president's authority in administering board policies and procedures. (IV.B.1; IV.B.1.a; IV.B.1.f; IV.B.1.j; IV.B.2; IV.B.2.c)

The film has just been nominated for a Genie Award, which is the Canadian equivalent of Hollywood’s Academy Award.

Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) FAQ

Q: SLOs are focusing only on what is happening in the classroom and not what happens before and after students come to class (e.g., poverty, having a prison record, divorce, etc.). In short, our SLOs do not allow for tracking and taking into account socioeconomic indicators if that is even possible.

A: This is correct. We are using the value-added concept by measuring early and late assessment—whether a student learns from the first day of the class to the last day of the class (only comparing their own progress, not against other students, or classes).

If we compare the results of a group of SLOs with another group of SLOs, it would both be a disaster and defeat the purpose of creating ongoing, collaborative dialogue for assessment for learning which is about student growth, feedback to students about their work, and helping students see and take control of their journey to success.

College of Marin Strategic Plan Progress Report

Administrators responsible for implementing Strategic Plan Action Steps presented their Strategic Plan Progress Reports at the Planning, Resource and Allocation Committee (PRAC) meeting on Jan. 25, 2011, (per “Assessment of Progress on College Priorities and Objectives”, College of Marin Integrated Planning Manual, p. 23).

Completed strategic objectives include those relating to: class scheduling analysis and changes to address deficits (especially for commuters and working adults) and the preparation and development of a new Technology Plan 2010-2016. Other individual completed action steps relate to Distance Education, Career Technical Education offerings, and student retention and success, although more work remains in these overall strategic objective areas.

The Strategic Plan 2009-2012 consists of 22 Action Steps belonging to 7 Strategic Objectives and 3 priorities.

In the July 2010 Strategic Plan Progress Report provided to the Board of Trustees, COM reported completing 11 Action Steps, with 11 Action Steps remaining “in progress,”, ranging from 25-80 percent completion.
At the Jan. 25 PRAC meeting, COM reported increased progress by completing 50 to 100 percent of the 11 remaining (original) Action Steps. Additionally, 9 new Action Steps were added since July 2010. Reported progress on these new action steps ranged from 25 to 50 percent.

A play noir Detective Story was the script upon which the 1951 Oscar-winning and Golden Globe nominated film was based. Set in a busy New York City police squad room and office, the play takes the audience through the busy workings of the precinct during the course of one day. Every manner of petty criminal, tough cop, eccentric street character is represented in this gritty story that is guaranteed to keep viewers spellbound until its dramatic climax.
