The COM Library Catalog

The College of Marin Library offers a limited range of local history materials that can be consulted as you research your topic.

Please visit the library’s web page to begin your search:

www.marin.edu/lrc

Follow the links to the Library Online Catalog in order to search for books. Consider broad keyword search terms such as “Marin History.”

Library Databases

The College of Marin Library subscribes to a number of online databases. Access the databases by logging in through the MyCom portal:

mycom.marin.edu

Click on the “Library/Learning Resources” tab and scroll down to “Library Online Databases” and locate the History Study Center link.

History Study Center is an online resource providing a vast collection of digitized primary and secondary sources for the study of history.

Please see the Database Handout for more information.

The Public Library as a Resource

COM students also have access to the public libraries in Marin County. Visit the following URL to search the Marinet Catalog:

http://catalog.marinet.lib.ca.us

Use the “Advanced Search” functionality to refine your search for books, DVDs, and other physical materials.

Public libraries also have research databases. Please contact your local library for more information.
