Assignments:

1. Short Paper #1: The object of this assignment is to write about the impact of one aspect of globalization in Marin, one country, or region. As part of your analysis, compare and contrast how Stiglitz and Harvey would analyze the causes, impacts, and reactions of the population.

2. Short Paper #2: The object of this assignment is to write about a recent social movement addressing an issue of globalization. As part of your analysis, compare and contrast how Stiglitz and Harvey would analyze the causes, impacts, and reactions of the population. Possible topics are Occupy Wall St., Arab Spring, Tea Party, Naxalites in India, general strikes in Europe, wildcat strikes in the US, student movements in Canada, UK, Chile and California, Landless Workers Movement in Brazil, Bolivarian Alternative of the Americas, Community Supported Agriculture/urban farming, and recent general strikes in Europe, to name but a few.

Resources:

College of Marin Library Website: www.marin.edu/lrc

- Library Forms and Handouts – A library page containing helpful documents, including “Library Databases” and “What is a Bibliography,” http://www.marin.edu/lrc/LibraryHandouts1.htm

- Library Online Catalog – Searchable for books, periodicals, and reserves items, which are physically located in the library. http://malc.marin.cc.ca.us/screens/mainmenu.html
  - Find reserve books for this class. Search by course name: POLS 201
  - Keyword Search for “Globalization”
  - Click on the subject hyperlink to locate items closely related to this topic.
  - Find the subject heading for “Globalization”
  - Pay attention to Location, Call Number, and Status

  - Encyclopedia Britannica – Conduct a search for “Globalization.”
  - Expanded Academic ASAP/Infotrac - Access scholarly journals, news magazines, and newspapers — many with full text and images. Search using “Globalization.” Limit to Full Text and Peer Review. Use Citation Tools feature to cite an article in MLA or APA format

- Public Library Resources in Marin – MARINet is a consortium of seven public and one university library jurisdictions. It provides both a Catalog and Research Databases: https://marinet.lib.ca.us/screens/opacmenu.html

- Contact the Reference Librarian for one-on-one assistance – Email questions to askthelibrary@marin.edu, call at 415-785-7540, or drop by in person Monday through Thursday from 9:00 am to 9:00 pm.