Potential International Partnership

with

Fengtai Vocational & Technical Schools

Beijing, China

Presented by

Nanda Schorske, Executive Dean
Indian Valley Campus & Workforce and Economic Development

Jason Lau, Ph.D., Director
International Education

Facilitated by

Kevin Tsui, Co-President
Heiner International Education Inc., Oakland, CA
ABOUT HEINER INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION INC.

- Founded in 2005
- Specializes in building international exchange programs for higher education worldwide (i.e. UC Berkeley, University of the Pacific and Marquette University.)
- Student Success: Recruit. Prepare. Serve
- University Preparatory Program for Chinese HS graduates
- Short-term and Long-term programs: UC Berkeley (20), UCLA (60), UCI (40), CSUSB (30), UCR (10)
ABOUT Fengtai Vocational & Technical Schools

• Founded by the Beijing Fengtai Human Resources and Social Security Bureau in 1984.

• One of the regional government-invested public community and career colleges.

• Approx. 10 miles from Beijing city center.

• The College has nine (9) campuses in Beijing.

• With a highly-qualified faculty and newly upgraded hi-tech facilities and classrooms, it has become one of the most important community and career college districts in the northeast China region.
POTENTIAL INTERNATIONAL PARTNERSHIP

• ESL / Intensive English Programs

• Study Abroad Programs

• Student and Faculty Exchanges

• Opportunities for cross-cultural research and collaboration
PROPOSED ITINERARY – JAN 1-7, 2014

• Jan 1  Depart for Beijing, China
  • Meet with Fengtai President Ai Qin Zhao
  • Meet with Heiner President Lisa Wang
  • Visit the Children’s Center, Film School, and 3 of the 9 campuses
  • Explore future international exchange and partnership opportunities

• Jan 7  Return to the U.S.
THANK YOU!

• Q&A