Performing Arts

Black Comedy, by Peter Shaffer
Directed by Jeffrey Bihr
May 6, 7, 13 and 14 at 8 p.m.
May 8 and 15 at 2 p.m.
College of Marin Studio Theatre at the Corner of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Laurel Avenue in Kentfield
$15 general and $10 for students and seniors. VISA and MasterCard are accepted and group rates are available. For reservations call the Box Office at 415-485-9385.

The laughs begin when the lights go out! Dark is light and light is dark in this hilarious comic ballet of a farce! In an attempt to impress his future father-in-law and score a job with a wealthy European art dealer, our hero and his fiancée “borrow” some very expensive antique furniture and objects d’arte from his fussy neighbor to spruce up his apartment. When the power fails, the neighbor returns unexpectedly and the not-so-old girl friend shows up; chaos ensues! Great fun for the entire family! Seating is limited in the Studio Theatre so reserve early. This show is sure to be a sellout.

COM Symphony Orchestra
Tara Flandreau, conductor
Saturday, May 7, 7:30 p.m.
   St. Hilary Church, Tiburon
Sunday, May 8, 4 p.m.
   Unity in Marin, Novato
Donation suggested: $20 general, $10 students, seniors, staff, and alumni.

The May concerts feature performances by three winners of the 2011 COM Concerto Competition. Two interesting 20th century works are included: soprano Emily Bender will perform Samuel Barber’s evocative work Knoxville: Summer of 1915, and bassoonist Karen Wright will play the seldom heard Ciranda das Sete Notas for bassoon and strings by Heitor Villa-Lobos. In a more classical vein, tenor Peter Tedeschi sings the aria Dies Bildnis ist bezaubernd schön from The Magic Flute. The program will also feature two orchestral favorites, the Classical Symphony by Prokofiev and the Unfinished Symphony by Franz Schubert.

Jazz Ensemble
Douglas Delaney, director
David Jones, choreographer
Tuesday, May 10, 7:30 pm
Performing Arts Theatre, Kentfield
Donation suggested, parking $3

Latin music for the jazz band will be a big part of this concert. Livin’ Larger Than Life, Alan Baylock’s Afro-Cuban work, and Forward Mo, a Brazilian Samba by Shelton Berg will be featured. Pat Metheney and Lyle Mays’ Minuano (Six Eight) is another great work in this idiom. Our singers will also offer some of the best vocal jazz, and David Jones’ Jazz Dance class will join us again with their spirited performance.

Concert Band

Douglas Delaney, director
Wednesday, May 11, noon
Performing Arts Theatre, Kentfield
Donation suggested, parking $3

Music from the ballet Sylvia by Léo Delibes opens this concert, starting with the famous trumpet fanfare followed by the March and Procession of Bacchus. Two works composed specifically for concert band, Fanfare and Allegro by Clifton Williams, and Clare Grundman’s Hebrides Suite are also to be performed.

Marin Oratorio

Nachtmusik — Franz Schubert (1797–1828)

Boyd Jarrell, director
Saturday, May 14, 8 pm
Sunday, May 15, 3 pm

The rich contrasts of this young genius are explored in a “Schubertiad” of familiar sacred music and rarely performed secular delights. The tuneful Mass in G is paired with lieder, piano music, and part-songs for male, for female, and for mixed-voice groupings. Pianists Paul Smith and Jeffrey Paul will provide the accompaniment for the lieder and part-songs. The hauntingly beautiful Nachtgesang im Walde (Nightsong of the Forest) calls for the atmospheric scoring of horn quartet to accompany the male chorus. Also featured will be the masterful narrative of Der Erlkönig and, of course, the eternally beautiful Ave Maria. Soloists Christa Pfeiffer, Edward Betts, and Robert Stafford will join maestro Boyd Jarrell, the chorus, and the Marin Oratorio orchestra for this unforgettable musicale.

College Chorus and Chamber Singers—Spring Concert

Boyd Jarrell, director
Jeffrey Paul, accompanist
Tuesday, May 17, 7:30 pm
Performing Arts Theatre, Kentfield
Donation suggested, parking $3

College Chorus and Chamber Singers return to the main stage this spring for a well-rounded program of choral delights. College Chorus will sing music by Handel, humorous settings of Mark Twain texts, and Jay Althouse’s stirring Like the Beat of a Drum. Chamber Singers will present madrigals from renaissance France as well as modern expressions of the madrigal idiom by Anders Edenroth, Eric Whitacre, and Samuel Barber. Be prepared for the birds and the bees.
For the grand finale, the two choirs will join forces for some operatic favorites. If you can’t join the choir, you can still join the fun.

Children’s Art Show
The IVC Children’s Center will present their annual Children’s Art Show on Tuesday, May 10, and Wednesday, May 11, from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., Building 12, room 100. Please stop by to pick up a beautiful matted drawing or painting to decorate your office or some special gift wrap created by the children. Fresh, homemade treats will also be available. Donations are welcome and will support the children’s arts program.

Children’s Centers Annual Butterfly Parade
The Kentfield and IVC Children’s Centers will be holding their annual Butterfly Parades on Tuesday, May 17, at 10:30 a.m. at IVC on the campus green and on Thursday, May 19, at 10:30 a.m. at Kentfield on the campus green next to the Fine Arts Building. The Butterfly Parade celebrates the preschooler’s transition to kindergarten and the metamorphosis of our student parents and student teachers who have completed their COM training and will be embarking on new vocations or transferring to a four-year university to continue their education. The children will be releasing the butterflies they have been raising since the caterpillar stage, singing, and flying special kites in honor of this occasion. All are welcome to join in the fun!

Transfer Recognition Reception
The Transfer/Career Center will be hosting its Fifth Annual Transfer Recognition Reception to honor and recognize our students who are transferring on to four-year universities. The event will be held Friday, May 20, 2011, at the Kentfield Campus, Student Services Building, first floor. The evening will begin with a ceremony at 5:30 p.m. to formally acknowledge our students, followed by a reception. You are invited to celebrate and honor our students as they make their transition from the college to attain their educational and professional goals.

Paintings by MaryAnn Nardo
An exhibit sponsored by the Emeritus Students of College of Marin is on display in the Student Services Building, room 146 through June 27.

2011 COM Student Film Festival
College of Marin presents the 2011 COM Student Film Festival on Friday, May 20, at 6:30 p.m. in Olney Hall 96. Come and watch short films written, produced, directed, shot and edited by student filmmakers. Prizes and scholarship money will be awarded. There will be a brief reception prior to the screenings. Admission is free. Bring family and friends to watch these rising stars of film debut their works.

COM Athletics News
College of Marin swimming and diving team member Jenny Garanina took 14th place in the butterfly at the Community College State Championships at East L.A. College on April 30. Her time is under consideration for All-American status.
